How Weekly Racing Series Points are Calculated:

- Driver's best 14 Weekly Finishes over the Weekly Racing Season will count towards season ending point total.
- Only the driver's highest point finish will be counted during any week (Monday through Sunday) towards the best 14 finishes (i.e.: if a driver competes multiple times a week, only the best point finish counts, the lower point total for the week will be discarded)
- Make-up/Double Feature Events where a driver has already competed in that week, will have to opportunity to better a finish with the Make-Up event.
- EXAMPLE of Counting Best Finish for multiple races during a Week:
  - Driver races Week 1 Friday night, 7 cars enter, and wins feature = 40 points.
  - Driver races Week 1 Saturday night, 13 cars enter, finishes 13th = 41 points.
  - Driver races Week 1 Sunday night, 27 cars enter, finishes 3rd = 48 points.
  - This drivers' Week 1 Point Total will be 48 points.
- In the event of a tie in National Points, the tie will be broken as follows:
  - 1st Tie Breaker – Number of 50-point race wins
  - 2nd Tie Breaker – Number of 50-point 2nd place finishes
  - 3rd Tie Breaker – Number of 50-point 3rd place finishes
  - ALL 50-point race finishes will count toward the tie breaker, not just those events in the netted points.
